CHAPEL HILL POST NO.6, AMERICAN LEGION, INCORPORATED
DEPARTMENT OF NORTH CAROLINA

Be it known that any previous Constitution and By-Laws of the Chapel Hill Post No.6, American Legion, Incorporated, Department of North Carolina, are hereby rescinded and are null and void.

CONSTITUTION OF CHAPEL HILL POST NO.6, AMERICAN LEGION, INCORPORATED

PREAMBLE

For God and Country we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in All Wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and goodwill on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom, and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE I

NAME

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be Chapel Hill Post No.6, American Legion, Incorporated, The American Legion, Department of North Carolina.

ARTICLE II

OBJECTS

Section 1. The objects and purpose of this American Legion Post shall be to promote the principles and policies as set for in the foregoing preamble, and the National and Departmental Constitutions of The American Legion.

ARTICLE III

NATURE

Section 1. This American Legion Post is a civilian organization and membership therein does not affect or increase liability for military or police service.

Section 2. This organization shall be absolutely non-political and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles or for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking political office or preferment.

Section 3. Rank does not exist in the American Legion; no member shall be addressed by his military or naval title in any meeting of this American Legion Post.

ARTICLE IV

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility for membership in this American Legion Post shall be prescribed by the National Constitution of The American Legion.

Section 2. Application for membership shall be made in writing under such regulations as may from time to time be prescribed by the American Legion Post Executive Committee.

Section 3. All applications for membership shall be acted upon at the next American Legion Post meeting following the making of such application, and shall at such meeting, be accepted, rejected or referred for further investigation and consideration. If one-third or more members present cast their vote against the acceptance of said application, then such application shall be recorded as rejected. A rejected application shall not again be considered until after the expiration of six months from the date of such rejection.

Section 4. Any member of this Post may be expelled for cause by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Committee after charges are preferred under oath (in writing) and a fair trial had upon the same per the Constitution and Bylaws of the American Legion Department of North Carolina, Inc.

Section 5. A member who has been expelled or suspended from this American Legion Post for any cause may be reinstated to membership by a two-thirds vote of the membership present in any regularly scheduled Post meeting and the payment of current dues for the year in which the reinstatement occurs.

Section 6. No person who has been expelled by an American Legion Post shall be admitted to membership in this American Legion Post, without the consent of the expelling American Legion Post, except that where such consent has been asked for and denied by such American Legion Post, he may then appeal to the State Executive Committee of the American Legion Department of North Carolina, Inc. of the expelling American Legion Post for permission to apply for membership in this American Legion Post, and shall be ineligible for membership until such permission is granted.
