Adjutant Matt Attaway has sent out a casting call!

Diesel Jack Media is filming a commercial for social media that will be broadcast nationally, and they'd love for our Post Legion Family to be a part of it, but you have to 'sign up' below! They have already made many videos of our members and Post background as seen on the American Legion Facebook reels. (Note from Deb: You can browse through the Facebook reels by clicking here). They are filming much of the day on May 14th, but have requested a dedicated slot for the Legion Family to participate.

Note: This is the same day as our Election and General Membership meeting, but they should be easily de-conflicted.
