Wall of Honor

On Wednesday, May 13th several of our Post 6 members were recognized at a ceremony at the Seymour Center in Chapel Hill as their names were added to the Seymour Centers Wall of Honor. Congratulations to John Montross, Felton Paige, Wade Gutreuter, Cliff Baldwin and Raymond Reid.

Old Friends

On Saturday, May 24th the Post 6 Honor Guard performed for Post 283 in Pittsboro and was delighted to meet up with former Post 6 member George Chall.

George is a 103½-year-old veteran who served during World War II. He is a local hero who served under General Patton during the Battle of the Bulge. Before moving to Chatham County, he and his wife Victoria were long term members right here at Post 6. Victoria was an active member of the Auxiliary for many years as well. It is great to see he is still doing well!
