Fish on Fridays

A Great Read

Congratulations to our own Greg Smith on the release of his new memoir Fish on Fridays: A Memoir of Bad Breaks, Hard Lessons, and Unexpected Strength. Greg has been a member of Post 6 for more than 10 years following a 20-year Army career. In his book, Greg shares stories from his military career, family life, leadership experiences, cancer and recovery, and the unexpected challenges that have shaped his life. At its heart, his book is a story about resilience and lessons learned along the way.

Greg hopes his memoir will resonate particularly with veterans and their families while offering something meaningful to anyone who has faced difficult circumstances.

Fish on Fridays is available on Amazon or by contacting Greg directly at greg@chartcourse.com.

A Great Meal

Remember to stop by Post 6 to enjoy a fresh-cooked fish meal every Friday from 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM. It's a great deal for $15 and they deliver!

When there is no rental at the Post, they will be generally serving in the Club Room. If the facility is rented, watch for them to set up in the pavilion (weather permitting).

Stop by and help make Fish Fry Fridays the success they deserve!

COMMANDER'S MESSAGE

Six years ago, it was my duty (along with seven other men and women) to put this beautiful legion home on the launching pad.

We worked tirelessly to get that done and I think the result speaks for itself. Post Six now has what I would consider to be the most beautiful American Legion Post in the United States. In fact, many people have called it the Taj Mahal of American Legion Posts.

Since I left command six years ago, there have been three other Post Commanders that have helped catapult the Post off the launchpad. They were all successful and each Commander had a different leadership style. However, they always moved the ship in the right direction.

After observing the Post (as the new Post Commander) for the last three months, I think we are coming into our stride. We've had many people step-up to critical Post positions.

Felton Page, assumed the position of Finance Officer (one of the most difficult in the post) and he also found time to do fish fries on Fridays. Cliff Baldwin took on the responsibility of Bar Manager in addition to his role as First Vice Commander.

I'd like to personally thank them for their outstanding contribution to the Post. I would also like to express my gratitude to Sabrina Hanson, who has surpassed all of our expectations for rentals at the Post. In addition, I would also like to thank all of the chaperones who spend their time overseeing those rentals.

I know many of you are looking for positions or things to do at the post. One of the best things you can do is come to a PEC meeting and see who the current PEC members are and how they interact. We are always looking for great people in leadership positions.

I will not be running for Post Commander next year so that will give someone an opportunity to step up and take a large leadership role.

All I can say is well done to everyone. Let's keep forging ahead and working towards our goal of $2.4 million, so we can become self-sufficient without as many rentals and take some of the burden off our volunteers.

We have the greatest Post in the United States, let's keep it that way.

Your Post Commander

Bill Munsee
