Honoring Our Legacy

Greg Smith has written a wonderful article in LEGIONTOWN USA about the importance of our Post 6 Museum. To quote Greg in the article:

> One of the things I enjoy most about serving as museum director at American Legion Post 6 in Chapel Hill is discovering the stories behind the items in our collection. Our museum contains uniforms, photographs, military equipment, books, models, plaques, artwork, patches and many other pieces of history. But these are more than objects. Almost every item has a connection to a person, a family, a military unit or an important moment in history.
>
> What makes the Post 6 Museum special is that many of these items were donated by our members, veterans, their families and people throughout the Chapel Hill

Operation Shut-Ins (OSI)

Post 6 runs an active program with Veterans visiting Veterans in local elder care facilities. The program has recently expanded to the Chatham Ridge facility and to the Cedars. With more places to visit, we need more Post 6 members in the program. To join our OSI program, please contact Tim Smith at 919-824-7259 or tsmith5350@gmail.com.

A Message from the Commander
Thank You to Our Volunteers!

I want to take a moment to personally thank those members who have recently stepped forward to support our Post by volunteering as event chaperones. It has been especially encouraging to see more of our broader membership step off the sidelines and lend a hand!

Your support is instrumental to the success of our Post operations. Just as importantly, every volunteer helps ease the stress and challenges of continually finding members willing to give their time. Your participation makes a real difference and encourages others to do the same.

We also recognize that our frequent emails requesting volunteers, particularly those last-minute appeals, can sometimes be a bit much. Please know these requests come from a genuine operational need. As more members become engaged and volunteer positions are filled earlier, we are hopeful that we can reduce the frequency of these emails, especially those urgent, last-minute requests.

To those who haven't volunteered yet, I encourage you to give it a try! Chaperoning is relatively easy, requires only a little of your time, and delivers a tremendous return on that investment for our Post and fellow Legion Family members.

Thank you to everyone stepping up and helping keep Post 6 strong. Your efforts are noticed, valued, and sincerely appreciated!

William Munsee

It Takes a Village

For the past few months, Post 6 has been busier than ever. We need everyone's help to support the activities that support our members, our Post, our community and all Veterans. How can you help? There are so many ways:

- ☑ Volunteer for the Fall Festival. There are many positions you can help with.
- ☑ Bake something for the Fall Festival Bake Sale.
- ☑ Join Operation Shut In. Tim and his group are currently expanding the number of group homes they will be visiting and desperately need additional team members.
- ☑ Assist with kitchen clean up after dinner meetings.
- ☑ Chaperone for building rental events. These events are our major source of revenue to maintain the Post expenses. We need a wider list of Post 6 and auxiliary members willing to chaperone.
- ☑ Help set up the venue for Post events. As we add more and more events to the calendar, we need a larger set-up team!
- ☑ Assist with Post clean up days.
- ☑ Help the property maintenance crew.
- ☑ Join the Honor Guard.
- ☑ Take a shift "populating" the Post on weekdays so that someone is here to greet those who may stop by.
- ☑ Help decorate the Post for the holidays.

And this is just the tip of the iceberg!
